Please note, research is readily available free on the net so we provided almost no answers.

However, we provided a couple here to some questions that we felt might be harder to find information.

Language - Latin was the main language of Rome. The “romance” languages to name a few are Spanish, Italian, Portuguese and French.

Law - Although Roman changed throughout it’s history, the system was always founded on the Twelve Tables. Under Roman law a person who was convicted of a crime was innocent until proven guilty. This standard is still used today.

RELIGION

For religion, we left this blank so you can choose which “direction” you want to go as far as negative or positive influences. For example, you may want to compare/contrast two of these topics or write about just one or choose your own topic.

Some suggestions to write about:

1. Emperor Worship
2. Roman mythology
3. Spread of Christianity
4. Paul was a prisoner in Rome (Acts 19:21)
5. Paul bearing witness in Rome (Acts 23:11)
