

On the map on the previous page, use the map on the left to label the countries surrounding Japan and to find its' location in relation to the rest of the world.

For the map on the right, label the 4 major cities of Japan, a major landmark and it's dependency on the sea.

Fold in half and glue this cover on the outside of your book.