

Leonardo da Vinci embodied the spirit of the true renaissance man.

Here you can write about him.

Use our information given, or use our questions to answer on the next page or use our blank page to write your own information in.

Fold over and glue this part to your page.

Renaissance Man

Date born:
April 15, 1452

---

Birthplace: Vinci, Italy (just outside of Florence).

---

Describe his family life:

His father and mother were not married. He spent most of his time with his father.

---

When Leonardo was 15 years old, what did he do?

He became an apprentice for Andrea Del Verorriochio, a very well known artist in Florence.

List some achievements:

Mona Lisa
The Last Supper
Draws machines to mimic flight of birds
Wrote the book The Divine Proportion, the first of its kind on geometric proportion.

---

Why is he called the true
renaissance man?

Leonardo captured the spirit of the renaissance because of his broad interest and achievements in a variety of subjects from art, sciences, math, philosophy and engineering to painting.

Date born:

---

Birthplace:

---

Describe his family life:

---

When Leonardo was 15 years old, what did he do?

List some achievements:

---

Why is he called the true renaissance man?

