

Research and write in your own facts or use the ones below. Glue answers under tabs.

Cut out and then cut in between tabs to form four side lift tabs.

When was the war?

Where did it take place?

Who were some of the key players?

Who won the French and Indian War?

The French and Indian war took place between May 1754 to February 10, 1763.

The war took place in the Ohio Valley.

Some of the key players were George Washington, Edward Braddock and Louis de Joseph Montcalm.

The surrender of Montreal ended the fighting between Britain and France in North America. The British had taken almost of the French territory.