

Fold over one side and then fold over left side, fold top down.

Use this minibook to draw and/or write about a variety of topics. For your older children, I used reconstruction and preservation of wreckage.

For younger children, I used comparing lifestyles to now and descriptions and drawings of the interior to what was found today.

Glue this part to your page.

