

President Abraham Lincoln

Cut out as one unit. Then fold this part back and down. Banner will hang down below and side pages will fold in.

General Ulysses S. Grant

Abraham Lincoln who was the 16th president of the United States helped preserve the United States of America by guiding the country through what is called by most historians the American Civil War.

General Ulysses S. Grant lead Union forces in the Civil War capturing Vicksburg and Richmond. He accepted the surrender of Robert E. Lee at Appomattox Courthouse.

N O R T H ★

President Jefferson Davis

Cut out as one unit. Then fold this part back and down. Banner will hang down below and side pages will fold in.

General Robert E. Lee

President Jefferson Davis served as president of the Confederate States of America during the American Civil War. He is credited with raising a Confederate army to be reckoned with by the Union and encouraging industrial enterprising in the south.

General Robert E. Lee commanded the Confederate forces and was one of the most celebrated generals in American history. He was a top graduate of West Point.

S O U T H ★