My Book About Greece

1
Mount Olympus is a high mountain in Greece.

2
Ancient Greeks liked to draw on vases to tell stories about their life.

3
Can you draw your favorite picture on this vase?

4
Greek children liked to go to plays and wear masks.

5
They also liked to hear stories. Aesop was a Greek man that told stories.

Read the story the Hare and the Tortoise from Aesop's Fables or below. Cut out pieces below (Hare, Tortoise, Other Animals, Tree and Winner's Post) Glue to craft stick or add magnet to act out the story.

The Hare and the Tortoise

The Hare was once boasting of his speed before the other animals. "I have never yet been beaten," said he "when I put forth my full speed. I challenge anyone here to race with me."

The Tortoise said quietly, "I accept your challenge." "That is a good joke," said the Hare; "I could dance round you all the way."

"Keep your boasting till you've been beaten," answered the Tortoise. "Shall we race?"

So a course was fixed and a start was made. The Hare darted out of sight almost at once, but soon stopped, and to show his contempt for the Tortoise lay down to have a nap.

The Tortoise plodded on and on and when the Hare awoke from his nap he saw the Tortoise just near the winning line and could not run up to save the race. Then said the Tortoise:
